- Snow City Cafe
1034 W. 4th Ave, Anchorage
Phone: 907-272 2489
Hearty and creative takes on your favorite cafe food, breakfast until 5pm, great coffee and locally brewed beer. An everchanging art show and the odd night of music or poetry.
- Taco King (3 locations)
113 W. Northern Lights Blvd, 907-276-7387
3561 E. Tudor Rd, Anchorage, 907-868-7611
1330 Huffman Rd, Anchorage, 907-336-5566
This restaurant reinforces the idea that the most delicious ethnic foods are found in hole-in-the-wall joints. If you don't mind ordering at the counter and getting your food on paper plates, this is the place to go. They serve the usual American-Mexican fare, but you can also order food real Mexicans love, like torta de lengua, pozole, and menudo.
- Thai Kitchen
3405 E. Tudor Rd, Anchorage
Phone: 907-561-0082
*Not the most elegant dining atmosphere, but the *GREAT* Thai food makes up for it!*
- Thai Orchid
219 E. Dimond (Dimond and King), Anchorage
Phone: 907-868-5226
Authentic, freshly made Thai Food. Very small and usually requires a wait, but it's our favorite Thai restaurant in town.

$$ (most entrees $10-15):

- Aladdin's Fine Mediterranean & American Cuisine
4240 Old Seward Hwy (corner of Tudor), Anchorage
Phone: 907-561-2373
The best middle eastern fare in Alaska, Rabah's soups are not to be missed and no one does duck better. [Review]
- Bear Tooth Grill
1230 W. 27th (Off of Spenard), Anchorage
Phone: 907-276-4200
The "Grill" serves really good seafood pastas, steaks, veggie options, and a variety of mexican foods, and the same wonderful beers sold at the Moose's Tooth and Bear Tooth Theatre. This website mostly touts the theatre next door, and the pdf menu is incomplete. Enter from the parking lot, or you might end up entering the Theatre, which also has an eating section off to the side.
- Gwennies Old Alaska Restaurant
4333 Spenard Rd Anchorage
Phone: 907-243-2090
Alaskana atmosphere, large servings, food varies from so-so to very good but worth it for "experience." Great brunch/breakfast place.
- Little New Orleans
8201 Old Seward Hwy, Anchorage
Phone: 907-646-2226
Authentic Cajun New Orleans Cuisine you can get mild or spicy food. Awesome shrimp dishes, jambalya, and gumbo. Crawfish and blue crab too!
- Moose's Tooth
3300 Old Seward Hwy (near 36th), Anchorage
Phone: 907-258-2537
Great selection of pizza choices and a wonderful local microbrew selection, great Hungarian mushroom soup, ginger salad dressing is wonderful.
- Organic Oasis
2610 Spenard Rd, Anchorage
Phone: 907-277-7882
Very tasty health-conscious food with lots of vegetarian options.
- Peter's Sushi Spot
4140 B St, Anchorage
Phone: 907-562-5187
Unusual twist on traditional sushi. They've recently moved into the old Red Robin off C Street so there's lots of room. Fun atmosphere, large meeting areas, good bar and shushi bar in updated trendy decor. As almost all sushi places are now, it's on the expensive side.
- Snow Goose Restaurant and Sleeping Lady Brewery
717 W. Third Ave, Anchorage
Phone: 907-277-7727
One of my favorite summertime activities is eating out on the deck at Snow Goose overlooking the inlet. They have an extensive menu including seafood, pasta dishes, and pizzas, but I would stick to the gourmet burgers and brew. Simon and Seafort's, a few blocks down the street, has better seafood in my opinion.

- Sourdough Mining Company

5200 Juneau St, Anchorage

Phone: 907-563-2272

Add says "dine in a gold mine," another Alaskan atmosphere, free shuttle from most hotels, food ranges from good to very, very good (some people say excellent). Across the road from the Alaska Wild Berry Factory which is a tourist "must see."

$$$ (most entrees $15-20):

Incredible selection of "beers from abroad," wonderful European cafe atmosphere.

- El Tango

Corner of Old Seward & Tudor, Anchorage

Phone: 907-770-2888

Many selections from Argentina, Columbia, Puerto Rico, Europe, etc - something for everyone (including some vegetarian fare)- Argentine beef, wonderful paella, stuffed snapper. You'll never leave hungry and you should plan on taking a doggie bag home. Service is casually slow, so don't go if you are on a time table. Some nights there is South American dancing.

$$$$ (most entrees $20+):

- Campo Bello

601 W. 36th Ave, Anchorage

Phone: 907-563-2040

Good Italian food. Their calamari is excellent.

- Glacier Brewhouse

737 W. 5th Ave, Anchorage (i know, downtown parking bites but that's the price of a great beer)

Phone: 907-274-2739

Insanely great ales, lagers & barleywines. They've done a few lambics (yesss!). Ask for whatever is cask conditioned at the moment and you'll think you're in Edinburgh. Their seasonal/specials are always a treat, but their oatmeal stout is world class. Oh, i think they serve food too. All ale, lager, lambic is <$10 (cheap!).

- Simon and Seafort's

420 L St, Anchorage

Phone: 907-274-3502

Great food, great sunset views of Sleeping Lady. They are a bit spendy, but the food, particularly the seafood, really is excellent here. We rarely order fish at restaurants since we're spoiled on fresh fish we catch ourselves, but S&S's asiago halibut is to die for. If you go early, you can get a 3-course meal for under $20.

Eagle River

$$ (most entrees $10-15):

Serves breakfast, lunch, and dinner in a casual atmosphere. Famous for its unique breakfast items and freshly made sandwiches, homemade soups, and pizzas.

$$$ (most entrees $15-20)

- Double Musky Inn

Mile 0.3 Crow Creek Rd, Girdwood

Phone: 907-783-2822

New Orleans meets Alaska with big rewards for you taste buds and your spirits. Creole cooking is mixed with Alaska Seafood. This is a bit of a drive, but both the drive and the food are worth it.
