

Thank you for entering the Music City Road Dogs 2nd annual Wired for Sound flyball tournament. We are thrilled you are coming to Nashville to race.

Entries greatly exceeded our expectations so we are experiencing some growing pains. Please bear with us - next year we will have two rings!

- " We have moved the tournament a couple of buildings over . Racing will be in the Exhibitors Building, crating will be in the Annex. They are connected by a roll up door. Exact location available at www.tennesseeestatefair.org
More space, more grass, closer to RV parking (and more $, see Raffle below)
- " Changes in format (you emailed, we listened) On Saturday Divisions 1-6 will race 5/5, Multi will race 3/3. On Sunday Divisions 1-4 will race 4/4, Divisions 5, 6, and Multi will race 3/3. Seed list and racing schedule are posted www.flyballdogs.com/music_city_road_dogs
- " Boxloaders - please stay to box judge the next race. We appreciate all line judges!! Great workers raffle to say thanks .
- " Crating areas will be marked off, but not assigned. Please observe our fire marshal designated aisles.
- " Raffle - Kriste Meyer has assembled another gorgeous raffle table with donations from all the Road Dogs.
- " Crate Decorating Contest - you can enter Friday evening thru Saturday morning, please enter and have your crates ready to be judged by 11am Sat. Grrrrrrrammy Awards will be announced after racing on Saturday. If you need further info contact Jen at jennyhoneycutt@aol.com
- " NO concessions available on site, but the White Trash Café will be open on Saturday. It is an interesting "meat & three" on Bransford Avenue, within walking distance of the Exhibitor s Bldg. Directions to other restaurants will be available.
- " Saturday Party - Henry welcomes everyone to stop by his place after racing. It was a big hit with exhibitors last year. For more info on the party contact Henry at hwalker@boultcummings.com
- " Questions - email Jane at pupscouts@att.net
